Support Doug!

"After the brutal drubbing I put on Oliver Gavin last year, I am truly surprised that Jan would step up. But that Danish 'Viking heritage' appears to have gotten the better of his common sense. As far as Calvin is concerned, he will do just about anything to get on TV."

Support Jan!

"This race should be easier slapping around the Aston Martins. That Geezer will be wheezing by the time we head up the hill. Plus, if he loses, he buys the beer for all my fans at Le Mans!"

Support Calvin!

"Hey wait a minute...how did I get roped into this deal...I am a lover not a racer! But, this is for a GREAT cause and I will do anything to get on TV."
